

Concord Township celebrates our Bicentennial in 2022!

In honor of this momentous occasion, a book about Concord Township history was written with the support and input of many residents and friends.

Books are currently available for sale at the Concord Community Center, Town Hall, and at local bookstores including Barnes & Noble for $23.99.

Get your author signed copy at the Community Center today!

