

Concord Township, Lake County, Ohio

Zoning Information Sheet #1: Accessory Buildings

1) What is an accessory building?

- An accessory building is a building located on the same lot as the main building or use, and which is secondary to the primary use of the main building or land.
- Any yard structure that is enclosed on at least three (3) sides and has a roof shall be regulated as an accessory building.
- Examples of accessory buildings include sheds, private garages, and barns.
- For information on other accessory structures, including gazebos and pavilions, see Information Sheet #5.

2) What are the requirements for accessory buildings?

3) What is needed to complete a zoning permit application for an accessory building?

- A diagram or site plan (drawn to scale) that shows the size and the proposed location of the building, including the proposed setback distances to front, side and rear property lines. Riparian setbacks, if applicable, are required to be shown as well.
- $100 permit fee.
- Zoning permit applications are completed online or at the Zoning Office.
- Please be advised that Homeowner's Associations may require additional review and approval for accessory buildings.

4) Are any other permits needed?

The Lake County Building Department also requires permits for accessory buildings larger than 200 square feet. Contact the Building Department for more information at 440-350-2636.
