Special thank you to all those involved in making our January and February Senior Socials a success including Kayla Flowers (CARE Patrol) Anissa Vilcheck (Chardon Healthcare), Abby Kemmerling (Legacy Health Services), Bridgett MacMichael (University Hospitals), Heather Witherite (Bluedot Cares), Chera Ihnat (HomeSmart)

THANK YOU to Mind & Body Martial Arts program for setting up our tables and chairs.

Lastly the Recreation Department would like to thank the Concord Township community for attending our events at the Community Center, Old Stone School, Town Hall campus, and Gazebo. Your participation continues to create a wonderful sense of community where friendships are cultivated and families thrive. We truly appreciate you!

Dear Friends,

Spring is RIGHT around the corner! Check out the exciting classes and activities we have to offer that will help you to organize, educate and celebrate! Would you like to play cards during the week? Want to work on a puzzle and not take up space in your home? Are you looking for someone to play chess with? Do you have an interest in crafting? If so, please stop by or call to chat with any of the Recreation Staff on suggestions you have! It is truly a joy serving our Seniors! Please enjoy this newsletter!

Your friends,

Rachel, Susie & Sean

DO YOU LIKE TO READ?

Check out Concord Township's Little Free Libraries, located near the entrance to the Old Stone School at 7125 Ravenna Road and at the entrance of the Concord Community Center at 7671 Auburn Road. The Concord Community Center has a mini-library in our kitchen! Stop by and peruse a nice selection of fiction and non-fiction books. Take as many as you like – free! If you have books you would like to donate, simply drop them off at your convenience.

If you would like to find some other math games and logic puzzles, you can find many more online at www.emathhelp.net

Are you interested in visiting local parks and want to have friends to chat with while taking in the beauty that surrounds you all while getting your heart rate up? Join Concord's 55+ Hiking Club by contacting Rachel Lamb in the Recreation Department at 440-639-4651 or email RLamb@concordtwp.com to be added to the weekly email on the location of the hike. The group meets each Thursday at 9:30am at different parks in the area.
